General Financial Aid Information for All Graduate Students

Step 1: Complete the FAFSA on-line for each year you are to receive financial aid.

Step 2: Go to the Prairie View A&M University Financial Aid Office and complete the Prairie View A&M Financial Aid Application immediately after completing Step 1.

Step 3: Complete the loan counseling procedure. The Prairie View Financial Aid Representative informs the student that this process can be completed on line. They will give the student the web address when Step 2 is completed.

Deadline dates for financial aid are subject to change. Student must verify the deadline date with the financial aid office for each document that is needed in the process.

All graduate students must register for at least 6 (six) hours of graduate level courses (5000 and above) in any semester in order to receive financial aid.
